

Satellite Radio is a "God Sent" for my commuting in and around the Boston Metropolitan area. With Satellite radio I can have up to date information on traffic and weather conditions continuously where on the the commercial radio stations, I must wait for the periodic broadcasts which could leave me in a traffic jam. Additionally, not all stations offer weather and traffic reports, therefore, I am left to hunting the dial for the information needed in my commute. Please consider this offering in you deliberations.